

Of Food

Biscuit Tin Blues

I SIMPLY think it isn't fair
That biscuit tins, appearing square,
Should nearly always be not quite,
Which means the lid won't go on right —
Presenting me for ever more
With just two chances out of four
To put it on, while I go wrong
With two sides short and two sides long,
As yet again I make my bid
To fit a slightly off-square lid.
