

Lady

Sights Unsightly

LUMPY-legg'd ladies with black-tighted thighs
And chunky knees knocking, quite shorn of disguise
By stark high-rise hemlines which put on display
The ugliest sight that we'll see any day!

The nodes and the nodules and varicose veins,
With the shortest of skirts! Surely someone explains
That lumpy-legg'd ladies, who think fashion's call
Is meant for themselves, will offend and appal
Involunt'ry viewers who'll feel that it's odd
To be sharing the secrets intended for God.
